

GCSE Results 2017

The GCSE system changed in 2017, with the introduction of new, tougher GCSE examinations graded from 9 (high) to 1 (low) in English and Maths. Other subjects have retained the existing A* to G system for at least one more year.

Rough equivalences between grades are shown below:

Bottom of Grade 7 (new) = bottom of Grade A (old)

Bottom of Grade 4 (new) = bottom of Grade C (old)

The new Grade 9 is higher than the old A* grade.

77% of students achieved at least Grade 4 in the new GCSE in both English and Maths.

Results for each GCSE subject are below. The proportions of each grade can sometimes vary from subject to subject because of the different groups of students sitting each subject.
